

AI SMS Guardian Report

SMS: Congratulations! You won $1m.Click here to claim it

Prediction: Spam

Confidence: 99.77%

Threat Level: CRITICAL

Risk Score: 100/100

Scam Type: Lottery Scam

AI Explanation

The message was classified as spam due to its generic and overly optimistic tone, which is typical of phishing scams. Suspicious patterns include: - The use of a generic greeting ("Congratulations!") to create a sense of urgency. - The promise of a large sum of money with no context or explanation. - The request to "click here" without providing a secure link. This message falls under the category of a lottery or sweepstakes scam. Safety tip: Be cautious of unsolicited messages claiming large sums of money. Never click on links or provide personal information without verifying the authenticity of the message.

Safety Advice

Do not click suspicious links. Never share OTPs or passwords. Verify the sender before taking any action.
